

Unit 1 Lesson 2

1. Survey ~ A way of gathering data that involves asking people for information.
2. Study ~ A careful observation and description of an event, object, or organism; studies do not change conditions or behaviors but simply describe things.
3. Experiment ~ A controlled procedure carried out to discover, test, or demonstrate something.
4. Variable ~ Something in an experiment that can be changed.